

Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Anantapuram (Dist.)

Location of the Vidyalaya: - Vidyalaya is situated 20 km from National highway 7 (Kodikonda check post) and the nearest Railway station is Hindupur, a parliamentary constituency, encircled by scores of business centers. A globally known spiritual centre, Puttappathi is simply accessible and Bengaluru International airport is at a drive of 2 hrs from the Vidyalaya. Since the inception, a fine slab of laudable students brought laurels to the vidyalaya. Many of our students have been flourishing in various professions as Medicine, Engineering and so on. Vidyalaya has comfy alumni.

The Mandal is declared model, owing to the educational institutions and peaceful surroundings. The vidyalaya has an affable atmosphere. Vidyalaya has been progressing over years with the co-operation of the concerned officials, Head of the Institution and dutiful staff. Presently, the Vidyalaya is full-fledged with a full boundary wall around, ample play grounds, Multi gym, second dining hall with chic furniture, computer lab with 47 systems, a laptop, incessant internet connectivity with broadband, an air-conditioned Seminar/ Conference Hall that serves the purpose of smart class room for teaching-learning process and with modern gear and an outfitted office room.

It is not out of place to feel proud that this Vidyalaya is all set to emerge as one of the model institutions. We are committed to raising the glory of the Vidyalaya to greater heights and pattern the talent of the child as a good citizen who can meet the challenges and can attest him a successful human being.