

“Human soul succumbs to the charms of Art”

Art is a quiet medicine to an injured heart. This is proven right from the era of Michelangelo. The Department of Art wants to create miraculous art pieces this academic year like yester years. Various events and competitions shall be conducted through the department of art.